China is going to be, what I call it, a core curriculum for any educated person, any person who wants to be the global leader of their field.

Shanghai is a modern city with a long history and a good mix of different cultures. It is a major financial center and window to observe Chinese economic development. Life in Shanghai is exciting and easy to enjoy. There are plenty to explore, including beautiful scenery and landscapes, distinguished architectural buildings that reflect a remarkable history. Food is great and there are plenty of choices.

You will find no trouble to travel around by using the state-of-art transportation networks. Metro is a cheap and easy way to travel. Most trains run from 5.30 am to 10.30 pm. For after hours and locations not near the metro line, taxi is the best way to travel and reasonably cheap.

China is going to be, what I call it, a core curriculum for any educated person, any person who wants to be the global leader of their field.
