The University recognizes that studying postgraduate programs overseas is a major undertaking, both personally and financially and aims to assist outstanding international students with scholarships. Please browse ISO website at http://iso.fudan.edu.cn/xuexi_sh.htm for detailed information.

1. Chinese Government Scholarship Program
   (scholarship quota specified according to inter-governmental agreements)
   It is established by MOE in accordance with educational exchange agreements or MOUs (memorandum of understanding) signed between Chinese government and governments of other countries, organizations, education institutions and relevant international organizations to provide both full scholarships and partial scholarships.
   Applicants shall apply to China Scholarship Council (http://www.csc.edu.cn/Laihua/scholarshipen.aspx) for the scholarship through dispatching authorities, institutions or the Chinese diplomatic missions.
Chinese Government Special Scholarship Program
(University Postgraduate Program, Cooperative Program with Provinces and Autonomous Regions, Sino-US Cultural Exchange Program Scholarship)
It is a full scholarship program set up by MOE aiming to support the key Chinese universities to recruit postgraduate students. Applicants should apply for the scholarship with the recommendations from Fudan University. But the number of the recommended applicants is very limited, and the applicants shall start their studies at Fudan University in September 2014, and not currently studying in China.

Confucius Institute Scholarship
It is set up by Confucius Institute Headquarters/Hanban to provide financial aid for international students to proceed to a Master’s degree in Teaching Chinese to Speakers of Other Languages (MTCSOL) in Chinese Universities. Applicants should apply to Confucius Institute Headquarters (http://cis.chinese.cn/) for the scholarship through Confucius Institutes (independently set-up Confucius Classrooms), overseas Chinese test centers, educational and cultural offices (sections) of Chinese embassies (consulates).
